

Nokona News: June 2009

JUNE 22, 2009

10U Update: The Chiefs participated in the 10U New England AAU playoffs this past weekend in Rhode Island. They dropped the opening game Friday night to the eventual pool champion RI Rays. The Chiefs came back strong on Saturday to defeat the Royals & Seadogs to finish the NEAAU playoffs at 2-1. A great season for the underdog 10U Chiefs!

Final Record: 20-10-2

11U Update: The Chiefs participated in the 11U New England AAU Super Division playoffs on June 12th-14th. The Chiefs went an impressive 2-0 in pool play to qualify for the NEAAU Championship round and defend their 2008 title. They were eliminated in the final round on Sunday. The Chiefs will play a series of tune-ups prior to participation in the Triple Crown 11U National Championships in Myrtle Beach South Carolina.

Current Overall Record: 23-12

12U Update: The Chiefs participated in the NEAAU 12U Super Division Playoffs on June 12th-14th . at our field in Ashland, MA, and will now play a series of tune-ups prior to participation in the Triple Crown 12U National Championships in Myrtle Beach South Carolina.

Current Overall Record: 18-15

13U Update: The Chiefs participated in the NEAAU 13U Super Division Playoffs at Bishop Connolly High School on June 12th-14th. The Chiefs went a hard fought 1-1 in the playoffs. Last weekend, the chiefs participated in the Cape Cod Wood Bat tourney and played very well while going 2-2. The Chiefs will play a series of tune-ups prior to participation in the Triple Crown 13U National Championships in Myrtle Beach South Carolina.

Current Overall Record: 16-18

14U Update: The Chiefs split a doubleheader against a very good Mass Pride team this past weekend. Leading the way in Game 1 victory was Brendan Skidmore (5 strong innings) and Oliver White on the mound. Offensively, Tyler Keating, Luke Cuneo, Steve Gilbert, Skidmore & White broke up a no-hitter and opened the way for the 5-2 victory with consecutive two out hits. The Chiefs travel to Rehobeth Beach, Delaware this weekend to participate in the CABA Invitational tournament.

Current 14U Record: 9-5-1

Current 15U Record: 1-1

Nokona News: June 2009

JUNE 10, 2009

10U Update: The Chiefs split 2 hard fought games with the Blackstone Valley Spinners this past weekend. The Chiefs play the Worcester Strike Zone this weekend in their final league play.

Current Overall Record: 18-9-2

11U Update: The swept the South Shore Seadogs Blue team this past weekend. Nolan Kessinger and Nick Santucci provided great pitching and picked up the wins in the 5-3, 9-8 victories. The Chiefs participate in the NEAAU 11U Super Division Playoffs this weekend. Good Luck Chiefs!

Current Overall Record: 21-11

12U Update: The Chiefs participate in the NEAAU 12U Super Division Playoffs this weekend at our Ashland Field Friday night and Saturday. Good Luck Chiefs!

Current Overall Record: 18-12

13U Update: The Chiefs participate in the NEAAU 13U Super Division Playoffs this weekend at Bishop Connolly High school in Fall River, MA. Good Luck Chiefs!

14U Update: The Chiefs opened their long awaited tournament season this past weekend with a trip to Branford, CT to compete in the Triple Crown Summer Sizzler. After a hard-fought weekend, the Chiefs finished with a 4-0 record and took home their first tournament championship of the summer. Pacing an offensive attack that scored 42 runs were Ryan Sullivan (2 HRs) and Steven Gilbert (7 SBs), On the mound, Matt Cuneo (9 Ks, W) and Brad McLean (championship win) has solid performances. The Chiefs will attempt to extend their early season momentum this weekend as they take on some of the best 14U competition at the Wood Bat Tournament on Cape Cod.

Current Overall Record: 8-2-1