

Nokona News: June 2010

June 29th Update

Summer Big Diamond Baseball in full swing!

13u:

The Chiefs record stands at 25-15-1 overall as they swept a pair of games from Mass Pride last week by scores of 18-7 and 15-2. Ben Porter and Drew Donohue both pitched complete game victories. The Chiefs banged out 24 hits in their best back to back offensive output of the season.

Isaiah Berg, Mike Stamas, Ben Porter and Drew Donohue paced the offense with two hits in each win.

This past weekend, the Chiefs dropped a pair to divisional opponent Team New England by scores of 8-7 and 10-9. On Sunday, the Chiefs split with Lightning Baseball in non-divisional action, winning 8-3 and losing 6-4. Heading into the NEAAU Diamond Division playoffs, our divisional record stands at 13-7.

14 Black:

Nokona went 3-1 this past weekend as they split a pair of Super Division South games with Shoveltown Baseball on Saturday and swept a pair from the Super Division North NH Grizzlies on Sunday 10-2 and 7-4. Conor Russell, Owen Wohl and Tyler McLean picked up victories on the mound. The Chiefs participated in the rugged Northeast Territory Championship in N. Brandford, CT the previous weekend against some great competition.

14 Red:

Nokona went 4-2 the past 2 weekends since participating in the Cape Cod Wood Bat tourney. The Chiefs swept Diamond division opponents South Coast Kings and Legends Baseball on the 19th and 20th and were swept by the Bristol County Eagles this past weekend. Nokona looks to keep the momentum going into the NEAAU 14u Diamond Division playoffs.

Nokona News: June 2010

15u:

Nokona traveled to Troy, NY to play in the 15u RPI Tourney on June 19th and 20th with Team Mizuno from Syracuse and the South Troy Dodgers in a 3 team round robin.

All 3 teams went 2-2 and played great baseball. Brad McLean and Ryan O'Shea picked up mound victories and Mark Poli led the offense with 6 extra base hits.

This past weekend, Nokona played up in the 16u Cape Cod Wood Bat tourney and played great baseball again, making the Semi-finals by going 3-1 in pool play.

Nokona received great pitching performances from McLean, O'Shea, Vin Scifo, Ryan Sullivan, Matt Cuneo and Tyler Keating. Nick Ahearn, Steve Gilbert, Luke Cuneo and Oliver white paced the offense.

10u Final Update:

Nokona finished an amazing 33-4 overall for the 2010 season and won 3 Championships, including the New England AAU 10u title. Congratulations to all on a great season!

11u Final Update:

Nokona finished 19-11 overall for the 2010 season in the rugged 11u Super Division. Great season by our 11u Chiefs!

12u Final Update:

Nokona finished 19-12-1 overall for the 2010 season in the rugged 12u Super Division. Great season by our 12u Chiefs!

June 15th Update

Nokona wins 10u New England Championships!

10u Update:

Our 10u Chiefs went 6-0 in the NEAAU Championship tourney to capture the New England Title! Teams from 4 states participated in the 10u division this year and the top 16 teams were invited to the Championships. Nokona won their opener on Friday night and 2 games on Saturday to qualify for the Championship round on Sunday.

Nokona News: June 2010

After winning in the quarterfinals and semifinals, the Chiefs were facing a very strong Legends baseball team in the Finals. Nokona raced out to a big early lead and never looked back!

Nokona finished at 33-4 overall after their tremendous Championship run. Congratulations to the all the 10u players, coaches and parents on a great effort!

More details and pictures to follow when they become available.

11u Update:

Nokona participated in the 11u New England Super Division Championships this past weekend and although they performed well, they did not qualify for the Championship round.

Our 11u Chiefs had numerous signature wins this season and are clearly a force to be reckoned with in 2011.

The Chiefs finished 19-11 overall for the 2010 season in the rugged Super Division. Great season by our 11u Chiefs!

12u Update:

Nokona participated in the 12u New England Super Division Championships this past weekend and although they performed well, they did not qualify for the Championship round.

The 12u Chiefs earned their best win of the year by defeating the #1 seed Legends Baseball in a fantastic 4-2 victory on Saturday. This victory cost the Legends a bye on Sunday and eventually the Championship. The Chiefs also overcame several logistical obstacles to extend into Sunday morning down 7-0 in the 4th inning in a do-or-die game with the RI Reds.

The Chiefs battled back into the bottom of the 7th, but unfortunately fell short by a score of 11-9.

Nokona News: June 2010

The Chiefs finished 19-12-1 overall for the 2010 season in the rugged Super Division. Great season by our 12u Chiefs!

13u Update:

The Chiefs record stands at 21-9-1 overall as they swept a divisional pair of games with Legends Baseball this past weekend playing great baseball. They will play in the Cape Cod Wood Bat Championships this weekend. Good Luck Chiefs!

14 Black Update:

The Chiefs dropped a pair of games to Team MA this weekend in a non-league matchup. They will participate in the Northeast Territory Championship in N. Brandford CT this weekend.

Good Luck Chiefs!

14 Red Update:

Nokona went 3-0 in pool play with some great baseball in the Cape Cod Wood Bat Championships this past weekend. The Chiefs lost in a semi-final heartbreaker on Sunday.

They take on the South Coast Kings and Legends Baseball in divisional action this weekend.

15u Update:

The Nokona Showcase team split with the 16u ITZ Thunder in Rhode Island this past weekend. The Chiefs will travel to Troy, NY to play in the RPI Tourney this weekend vs the South Troy Dodgers and the Syracuse Mizuno team. Good Luck Chiefs!

Nokona News: June 2010

June 10th Update

Playoff Matchups set for 10u, 11u, 12u NEAAU tourneys this weekend!

10u:

Nokona is currently 27-4 overall and play the following NEAAU playoff schedule this weekend:

Friday 4:30 PM vs. Hit Doctor Diamonds Green

Saturday 9:00 AM vs Quincy Redstockings

Saturday 3:00 PM vs Noreasters

Played at Mount Vernon fields in Lawrence, MA

11u:

Nokona is currently 18-9 overall and play the following NEAAU playoff schedule this weekend:

Friday 6:30 PM vs. Team Mizuno

Saturday 9:00 AM vs Legends

Saturday 4:00 PM vs Worcester Heat

Played at Lucent Field in N. Andover, MA

12u:

Nokona is currently 18-10-1 overall and play the following NEAAU playoff schedule this weekend:

Friday 8:00 PM vs. RI Reds

Saturday 1:00 PM vs Legends

Nokona News: June 2010

Saturday 5:00 PM vs On Deck Circle

Played at Woodlake Field in Johnston, RI

13u:

The Chiefs record stands at 19-9-1 overall as they travel to divisional opponent Legends Baseball this weekend.

14 Black:

The Chiefs travel to Team MA and Shoveltown Baseball this weekend in both non-league and divisional matchups.

14 Red:

Nokona won 3 non-league matchups this weekend and participates in the Cape Cod Wood Bat Championships this weekend. Good Luck Chiefs!

15u:

The Nokona 15u Showcase team began play this past weekend by sweeping a doubleheader from Hit Doctor Diamonds. The Chiefs will play the 16u ITZ Thunder and the 17u DBI teams this weekend in preparation for the RPI Tourney the following weekend.

14u Red makes playoffs in first Perfect Game Tournament!

June 3rd Update

10u:

Nokona went 4-1 in the Triple Crown Memorial Day Shootout this past weekend.

Nokona went a tremendous 4-0 in pool play, but lost a rematch with the very steady Mattituck Mets in the tournament semi-finals. The Chiefs improved to 26-4 overall and host the RI Rays in a playoff tune-up this weekend.

Nokona News: June 2010

11u:

Nokona went 2-2 in the Triple Crown Memorial Day Shootout this past weekend. The Chiefs overall record is 18-9 as they host divisional opponents Athletes Edge and Team Mizuno this weekend.

12u:

Nokona went 2-1-1 in the Triple Crown Memorial Day Shootout this past weekend. The Chiefs record is 8-4 in the Super Division and 17-7-1 overall as they play 2 divisional opponents this weekend hosting the NE Firebirds on Saturday and traveling to the Boston Jr. Rams on Sunday.

13u:

Nokona went 1-2-1 in the Triple Crown Memorial Day Shootout this past weekend. The Chiefs record stands at 18-6-1 overall as they travel to divisional opponents Blackstone Valley and RI Reds this weekend.

14 Black:

Nokona went 2-2 in the Triple Crown Memorial Day Shootout this past weekend. The Chiefs record stands at 8-8 overall as they host Team Mizuno and travel to South Shore Spartans this weekend.

14 Red:

Nokona participated in the Elite Perfect Game tourney in Bristol CT this past weekend and qualified for the playoffs in their very first Perfect Game Tournament.

The Chiefs went 3-1 in pool play, losing only to eventual champion Jersey Boyz in a 2-1 thriller. Nokona was eliminated in the semi's and Jersey Boys won the elite tourney. The Chiefs host Team Mizuno on Saturday and Divisional rival Legends Navy on Sunday this weekend.

15u:

The Nokona 15u Showcase team begins play this weekend with a tune-up doubleheader at the Hit Doctor Diamonds. The chiefs will play various local teams up to 18 years old to prepare for the tournaments that begin on June 19th.